

One male & female from each category

The application is open from 30 July till 25 September 2023 for applications from international community. The award aims to promote and recognize excellence in cybersecurity practices and encourages innovation, collaboration and leadership. The scope of recognizing the cyber security focused excellence award will consider youth, students, teachers, cyber security entrepreneurs, smart parents, and government service providers and communities that have made significant contributions in the fields of cybersecurity, and the Programme excisions in improving cyber security awareness and practices across the world particularly in the LDC countries.

Watch this video to know more : <http://bit.ly/44KH0uv>.

To know more visit:
www.bicsaa.gov.bd
Supported by UNDP Bangladesh